

Terms and Conditions Booking «Gaumenschmaus im Vogelhaus»

Due to the limited number of places, a booking is mandatory and is considered binding once made. There are no prices per person, only one price per birdhouse. The number of people (max 4) who appear on the booked date does not matter. Therefore, the flat rate booked is due in any case, even if the birdhouse is not fully occupied. After the booking has been received, a confirmation with the purchased ticket will be sent by email.

A purchased ticket cannot be canceled. However, the ticket is personally transferable and can be passed on if you are unable to attend. Finding a replacement is the responsibility of the buyer. In this case, the host Bergkäserei Marbach must be informed of the change so that the guest list can be updated.

If guests do not show up for the booked ticket, 100% of the ticket price will subsequently be charged to the buyer.

Payment terms:

Payment for the offer is made on site after consumption in cash, by Twint or credit card.
